About the Book

Magical Stories Full of Mystery & Humour

The school Nativity play has been cast and Robbie would rather be an angel than a spotty, hopping globalob, but no one seems to understand. A wilful donkey called Trouble has his life transformed by a baby, and a girl who feels alone on Christmas morning finds a reason to smile again.

Sue Hampton captures the spirit of Christmas with three warm-hearted stories full of humour, mystery and magic.

Ex-teacher Sue Hampton now has nineteen published books for children and adults, one of which, TRACES, made the top three in The People's Book Prize 2012. Her work across a range of genres has been praised by her hero, Michael Morpurgo: "terrific" "enthraling" and "beautifully written". Sue has made over three hundred author visits to schools, aiming to inspire children and teenagers to read and write.
