About the Book

The meeting point of spiritual and secular child-rearing

Many parents misunderstand the meaning of high quality care when it comes to bringing up their children. Is quality care about putting children in the most expensive schools and lavishing gifts and toys on them? Or is it about discipline and setting boundaries?

In today's busy world, many factors hinder parents from giving high quality care to their children. It is the writer's intention to bring to light these problems and how to overcome them.

The writer gives practical advice, goes into detail about the pitfalls surrounding parenting and how to give children high quality care in both secular and, most importantly, a God-fearing way: hence The Meeting Point....
