About the Book

Author Joan Dean releases a heart-warming novel with an inspiring plot.

Coming second is never easy and when close family members who should support you seem to show their disapproval or put you down, then it can seem like all the odds are stacked against you.

Mollie is the second child in her family and from a very young age she was made to feel inadequate. She has big dreams but it appears that they will not see the light of day. Will the unforeseen negative circumstances that come her way, eventually bring her to the lime-light?
