About the Book

Peter Hodgson releases an action-packed detective thriller

A dirty bomb explodes in North London. Severe injuries, caused by toxic fumes from a uranic compound used in the bomb, put Britain's security services on high alert.

Tara Drake, an attractive highly trained agent in a special unit of MI5's anti-terrorist branch, is assigned the job of helping her colleagues track down the mastermind behind the attack.

DI Dave Perry is called to investigate a bizarre, brutal murder of a nuclear plant worker in Glenmar Forest. There are no obvious motives and the only clue is the writing on the soles of the victim's feet which steers Perry's investigation in two directions.
