Poignant, page-turner reveals a deep side of beach-holiday India

Rich came to the Goa beaches for a much needed break, his arrival coincides with the discovery of a young girl's body washed up on shore. He gets caught up with local police investigating the murder and suddenly finds himself on a perilous journey through dark forests and underworlds to prove his innocence.

Reviews

'It's a gripping, moving and ultimately eye-opening story...' Guy Russell, author and prize winning poet.

'Beardmore gets right to the heart of the stories he tells...' Judi Moore, author of Ice Cold Passion and other stories.
