About the Book

An easy-read collection of thoughtful & poignant poems

An enjoyable collection of poems relating to life experiences designed to lift your spirits, including some light-hearted rhymes guaranteed to make you smile. Moments put into words that make you pause and reflect on what really matters most in life, helping you connect with your inner-self.

As you read you will be reminded that you are not alone on your own personal journey along life's winding highway. Someone has walked the path you are on and has felt what you are feeling—your tears and joys.

This is the perfect book to inspire, comfort and invigorate you throughout a lifetime with an ample assortment of topics to delight every palate.

Author Natalie Mason says "I have been writing poetry from an early age for special occasions and was inspired by my Granddad Harry. These poems are like moments captured and framed into verses that make you stop and think! There is a wide variety of poems with something to suit every occasion."
