About the Book

Royal pomp lands five young Londoners in unforeseen circumstances

After a disastrous date with Eleanor, James wakes up to a house full of Royal Wedding fever. It may be a national holiday, but he's in no mood for romance. His best friend Olly is anti-monarchy, but his loved-up parents are ready to party and his younger sister Faith sets off for Hyde Park to experience the atmosphere for herself.

Somewhere across the city, in the crowd that James does not want to be part of, is a girl from a different kind of postcode who could change his world...
