About the Book

Grahame Howard launches new fantasy fiction novel for children 8-11 years old.

A magical book which makes all wishes come true is discovered by a 9 year old boy. He goes on an amazing adventure with friends...

Back in 1940 on the Island of Tenerife, a young child - Pedro Armaz, is supernaturally given words for special book which made wishes come true. His family are very poor and so Pedro wishes for riches and great wealth which are granted.

Many years later, Zelmuto, Chief and Highness of Planet Mars, discovers the existence of the wishing book and wants it for himself so that he can become the ruler of the whole universe. He sends a Martian warrior to find the book and bring it back to Mars, but the warrior keeps the book and uses the book for his own selfish ends and never returns to Mars.

Many years later, little John Carter aged 9, finds this book hidden under a floorboard in his bedroom. He tells his twin sister Penny and close friend Jimmy and together they have many small adventures and play pranks with the book.

The children find themselves on Planet Mars. This is where the action picks up.
