About the Book

A light-hearted detective story in the Falconer Series

It is the summer of 1728, and we are in the village of Sherburn, in the West Riding of Yorkshire. A conspiracy is in the wings, this has worrying, and sometimes hilarious, consequences for the hapless vicar, whose meagre detective skills are stretched to their limit. Both the squire and Sir Ralph are only too happy to leave it all to the vicar – until, that is, the vicar is arrested for gun-smuggling and the squire disappears.

This neat tale both faithfully recreates the atmosphere of an eighteenth-century Yorkshire village and offers the modern reader rare entertainment.

Julius Falconer is a retired translator and secondary-school teacher; he reads, writes, indulges his passion for music, walks, gardens and thinks. This is his eighteenth whodunnit.
